

Crete Country Christmas

December 1, 2 & 3 2023

Dear Business Owners and Friends,

It might be hot outside, but it is time to start preparing for one of Crete's oldest family traditions – Crete Country Christmas! We are eagerly looking forward to this year's festivities!

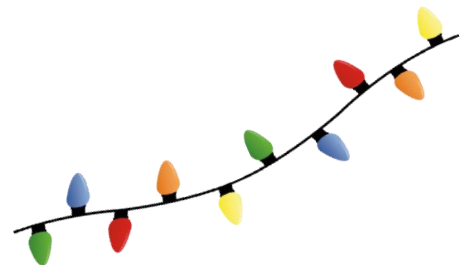

Country Christmas is a highlight of the holiday season for the families of Crete and the surrounding communities. This event could not happen without your generous support. We hope you will be part of this wonderful weekend that showcases our community to thousands of attendees. Please find the following forms attached and become involved in the celebration!

Forms included in this mailing are also available at www.CreteCountryChristmas.com

- Financial Sponsorship - Help fund the promotion, house decorating contest, entertainment and events of the weekend. Deadline is Nov. 1st for brochure – no exceptions.
- Parade of Lights - Join the magical procession on December 2nd at 6 PM. We ask that you pre-register your float in order to properly plan for the parade. Deadline Nov. 21st.
- Community Event – Host an event Crete Country Christmas weekend at your place of business. Let us know about it at info@cretecountrychristmas.com and we will list it on the website with the weekend events. A direct link will be included to your own website or social media page containing the promotional materials you have created for your event.

Thank you for your support!
